The brief facts of the case are that on 24.04.2025 at 06:00 hours complainant Jingiti Aruna W/o Jangiti Anjaneyulu, Age: 44 years, Caste: Mudiraj, Occ: Housewife R/o Yellammakunta, Makthal Town, Narayanpet Ph.9011645665 came to Makthal PS and lodged a Telugu written petition in which she stated that they have migrated to Bombay for eking livelihood. On 21.04.2025 they came to Makthal for cremation of her husband's father JangitiThayappa. Her husband is the only son to perform final rights to his father but her sister-in-laws restrained her husband from doing final rights.

they to subjugate the issue kept silent for that moment. On 23.04.2025 at 12:30 hours to 13:00 hours she along with her husband and children went on the occasion of three days ritual as they were called up on by elders of their family members, but her sister-in-laws 1.Chityala Sujatha W/o Ramulu, 2.Latha Koli W/o Amresh and their children 3.Chityala Praveen S/o Ramulu, 4.Chityala Pramod S/o Ramulu, 5.Prathamesh Koli S/o Amresh, 6.Vidya Bandari altogether abused them in filthy language and attacked on them with hands and stones by which they received bleeding scar injuries, mean while Vidyabandari, Pramod and Latha Koli held her throat but her brother Neerati Narasimha S/o Venkatramulu intervened and stopped them, by which they abused him and pushed him aside. They further threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, requested to take necessary legal action as per law.

As per the contents of the above complaint, I K Lal Singh, HC 248 of Makthal PS has registered a Case in Cr.No.100/2025 U/s 126(2), 118(1), 352, 351(2) r/w 3(5) BNS and took up the investigation.

During the course of investigation, I examined and recorded the statements of LWS-1 & 2 at PS and same incorporated in part-II case diaries and issued wound certificats, further I was visited the scene of offence, which is located at house of complainant, Yellammakunta of Makthal town, there secured the presence of two mediators, in their presence conducted scene of offence panchanama and drawn rough sketch in crime detail form. Further I examined and recorded the statements of Lws-3 and 4 in detail in part-II case diaries then issued to wound certificates to them and referred to Govt. hospital Makthal.

Further on the same day deputed PC-656 to get the medical certificates of the victim, as such Dr.Mahesh Raj, CAS, CHC, Makthal treated them and issued medical certificates in which he opined that the injuries sustained by victim are "Simple in Nature".
Closed the CD for the day, further progress follows through my next CD.
